

Here are two sets of stickers to choose from.

You only need one set. The choice is yours :)

Its recommended that the stickers be taped in the middle of the key and not on the edge.

If you don't have a color printer, use crayons or felts to color the squares below and cut them out, or use some already colored construction paper.

Makes a great cut out activity with your kids as well.